

Finish the story- Chip and Jack

Work with a partner on this activity. One partner will be the Clue Giver. The other partner will be the Word Giver. The Clue Giver asks the Word Giver for a common noun to fill in each blank. The type of common noun is in brackets (it will either be a type of person, place or thing eg teacher, school, desk). Fill in ALL of the blanks BEFORE reading the story together

One bright morning, Jack and Chip rode their bikes to the _____(place). They brought a _____(thing) with them to play with when they were there. First though, after taking their helmets off, they sat down and enjoyed a picnic of _____(thing/food) and _____(thing/food), and drank plenty of _____(think/drink). When they were finished eating, Jack pulled a _____(thing) out of his pocket and passed it to Chip. Just then, a _____(person) and a _____(person) walked around the corner and saw what Chip was holding. They stopped to have a closer look. “Hey!” said one. “That looks just like my _____(thing) that my _____(person) gave me for my birthday last year! Aren’t they great?!?”. Jack and Chip laughed. “Come on!” said Chip excitedly. “Let’s go to the _____(place) and the four of us can play with it together”. They started to ride off. “Don’t forget to buckle up your helmet properly Jack!”
